THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13. 1739

1396.

Yesterday arrived the Two Mails due from France.

Petersburgh, Nov. 27. N. S.

THE Discovery of a new Conspiracy form'd abroad against this Empire is all the Talk; and 'tis said the chief Ministers held a Conference some Days ago, during which a Detachment of Guards was drawn up in the Court of the Imperial Palace where they met: Whether there any Grounds for the Report will soon be known. Mean time, the greatest Part of the Armies under the Generals Lally and Munich are to have their Winter-Quarters in the Provinces of this Empire that border upon the Baltick; so that by next Spring an Army of 80000 Men may be assembled on the Frontiers of Finland, and one of 60000 in Livonia; and the Provisions for the Maintenance of so great a Number of Forces are actually ready in the Magazines of Imperial Majesty. As soon as the Grand Signior's Ratification of the Treaty with this Court is arriv'd, the Carina will charge her Ministers at Foreign Courts to notify the Articles of the Treaty to them; it being remarkable, that the Swedish is the only Court to which any such Notification has been made yet.

A Cruise in Barbary, Oct. 28. The Government of this City is still Aristocratical, because the Citizens are not yet resolv'd to recognize either of the Kings who contend for the Crown of Morocco. It rain'd here without ceasing from the 4th to the 12th, which is a Thing that has not been known for above Six Years past: It has done a great deal of Good to the Soil, and the Moors have thereupon celebrated a Day of Thanksgiving. The King Muley Abdalla, who seem'd to have given up to his Competitors, is now'd from Guinea, with a Design to attack Muley Lariba, so that we shall soon hear of a Battle between these Two Princes.

Rome, Nov. 28. N. S. In the Congregation which was held on the 22d Instant about the Affairs of San Marino it was judg'd, that as the Pope's View in restoring that Republick under his Dominion was only to restore the Tranquillity there which 'tis not possible to accomplish; it would perhaps be more convenient to restore things to their former Condition, by taking proper Measures to put a Stop to the Division that reign among the Inhabitants, some of whom, as reported, have apply'd to the Republick of Venice to defend its Intercession in their Favour; and they think the said State the more engaged to befriend them, because the Republick of San Marino, as little as it, looks upon that of Venice as its Sister, and in its Letters actually gives it the Title of Serenissima Sorella, or Most Serene Sister.

Madrid, Nov. 27. By a List of the Forces which the King has on Foot in New Spain it appears, they amount to 35000 Men, and we hope that by the Addition of a few more thousands they will be able to repel the Attempts with which the English threaten the Harbours of Carthagena and Porto Bello, and especially the Isle of Cuba. We even flatter ourselves, by taking certain Measures, that we shall give them some Uneasiness for Jamaica, where, 'tis said, there are still some of the Negroes disposed to revolt.

Pavia, Dec. 8. O. S. The Court is very gay, so that there does not seem to be the least Uneasiness about the Differences between the Courts of Spain and Great Britain. Mean time we are assured, that a certain Ambassador has declar'd to the Court, that the Augmentation of its Forces is like to give Umbrage to some other Powers of Europe. The Marquis de la Mina, the Spanish Ambassador here, receives two Letters a Week regularly from his Court, and his Excellency confers with the King's Ministers almost every Day; but he is selling off his Equipage, and preparing to return to Madrid as soon as the Count de Caylus comes hither to succeed him.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, Dec. 6. Last Night and this Morning we had a prodigious Hurricane, which blow'd with extreme Violence for many Hours; and had not the Rain, which fell at the same Time, abated a great deal of its Impetuosity, we might have dreaded the most-terrible Consequences. The Wind was from South and South West, and for some Time almost entire West. The House of Andrew Dunbar in Potter-Row was mostly blown down, and his Nephew and Niece (John and Anne Johnston) bury'd in the Ruins. It is not to be thought but there has been considerable Damage done the Shipping and Vessels at Sea; but of these we have as yet got no Accounts, nor of its Effects in the Country, at any Distance from the City: Only at Leith, a Ship which lay in the Road with Goods and Passengers for London, — Angus, Master, was drove from her Anchors, and no one can yet give certain Account what has been her Fate, tho' we presume she has got safe into some Harbour on the North Side of the Firth.

L O N D O N.

We hear from Vienna, that the Emperor demands of the States of Lower Austria, besides the ordinary and extraordinary Subsidies, their Contingent in the Levy of 30000 Recruits, which 'tis said amounts to 20000 Men. The Ratification of the definitive Treaty is, 'tis said, at length arriv'd from Constantinople, and that there are some ambiguous Clauses in it with regard to the Frontiers of Croatia. There are in the mean time Letters from Belgrade which say, that the Turks have not only refus'd Passage to a Detachment of Germans that was marching to take Possession of Meadia, but actually fir'd upon those Troops, and oblig'd them to go to their Quarters. They add from Vienna, that the Velt Marshal Wallis, who has been sick for some time in the Place of his Confinement, has wrote a very submissive Letter to the Emperor; and that the British Minister, Mr Robinson, has had frequent Conferences with the Emperor's Great Chancellor Count Sinzendorf, since the Arrival of an Express from London. They don't pretend to know the Secrets of his Negotiation, but they pretend to know that his Proposals are not ill receiv'd: And 'tis said, that the Emperor has granted Leave to his Britannick Majesty and another Power, to levy Men throughout the Empire.

Letters of the 24th ult. N. S. from Naples say, that the King of the Two Sicilies is sending Ministers to Constantinople and Algier, to conclude Treaties of Commerce with the Porte and the Regencies of Barbary. They give out there, that Don Philip is to be proclaim'd King of Corsica on the 15th of March, his Birth-day.

Some Advice from Paris say, that the new Tariff of Commerce betwixt France and Holland was sign'd the 8th Instant N. S. at Versailles.

Letters from Italy say, that on the 24th ult. N. S. the French Ambassador had a long Conference in private with the Pretender, which they doubt not was upon Affairs of Importance, because the Chevalier has been ever since in very close Consultation with the Creatures that are in his Confidence: And that the Day before, after the Entertainment then given by the Cardinal de Tencin to the Chevalier de St George and his two Sons, to the Cardinals Acquaviva and Spinelli, and to several Prelates and other Persons of Distinction, there was not only the Chance of the wild Boar mention'd in one of our former to be kill'd by the Chevalier's eldest Son at the first Shot, but a Roe-buck was also hunted, which the said Hero actually kill'd also at the first Shot, after his younger Brother had fir'd twice at him and miss'd him.

We hear from Genoa, that Horace Walpole, Esq; the youngest Son of the Right Hon. the Chancellor of the Exchequer, is arriv'd there in his Travels from Rome.

From Milan, that the King of Sardinia is not only repairing and augmenting his Fortifications, but increasing his Forces, and has sent the Marquis d'Ormea to Switzerland to treat for 6000 Men.

The Providence, Donovan, bound from Naples for Lisbon, laden with Allam, &c. was taken by a Spanish Privateer and carried into Majorca.

The Neptune, Capt. Lunn, bound from Scanderoon and Cyprus for Leghorn, was taken by a Spanish Settee off of Cape Carbonelli the 29th of November last N. S. and carried into Porto Specie; her Cargo being lost to Italians and Jews, and was esteem'd worth 20000 Dollars, 15000 of which were insur'd in Leghorn.

Capt Christopher Archer of the Drake P. k. from Newfoundland writes from Leghorn the 26th of November O. S. that he arriv'd there that Day under Convoy of the Solebay Man of War, Cape Lushington, that in their Passage the Fleet was attack'd by four Majorca Gallies, by whom one of his Men was wounded by the Shot; that the Man of War engag'd them for two Hours, and by good Management preserved all his Fleet.

Yesterday's French Mail brought Advice of the Spaniards having carried a rich Ship into Carthagena, and three more into Majorca, one the Providence above-mentioned.

Last Monday Night the Corps of the late Earl of Stafford, who died at his Seat a Wentworth Castle in Yorkshire on the 15th of November last, was brought from thence in great Funerall Pomp and Solemnity, and was inter'd in the Burial Vault of that Noble Family at Tuddington in Bedfordshire.

And this Day the Earl of Stafford will wait on his Majesty at St. James's to deliver the Esigens of the most Noble Order of the Garter, which belonged to the late Earl his Father.

His Majesty has been pleas'd to appoint Major Sinclford, of Colonel Blund's Regiment, to be Lieutenant Colonel of the Regiment of Foot commanded by Brigadier General Wentworth.

And also to appoint Sir Robert Monro, Bart. to be Lieutenant Colonel; George Grant, Esq; to be Major; James Colquhoun, Esq; to be Captain; and Francis Grant, Esq; to be Lieutenant to the Regiment of Foot commanded by the Right Hon. the Earl of Crawford. This
